

MICHIGAN COMBINED APPLICATION PROJECT

What are Michigan Combined Application Project (MiCAP) food benefits?

- MiCAP is a program that lets you get food benefits when you get SSI.

How can I get MiCAP food assistance? You qualify if you:

- Receive SSI.
- Have no other income.
- Are at least 18 years of age.
- Reside in Michigan.

What are the benefits of MiCAP?

- You can buy more groceries.
- Your interview for SSI is your interview for MiCAP.
- You can get your benefits through MiCAP without a lot of paperwork.
- We won't ask you for copies of your personal information.
- You don't have to report to us. Just tell Social Security about your changes and they will tell us.
- Your food benefits go into a special account and we send you a Bridge card to use when you buy groceries. A Bridge card works like a bankcard or debit card.
